Kids vs Adults Weekly News S'Quiz

Hello fabulous Squiz Kids Quizzers -

And welcome to the Kids v Adults Weekly News S'Quiz ... this is your chance to prove who's been paying the most attention to the week that just was.

I'm Bryce Corbett –

You know how this works ... First, we'll have five questions for kids about what's been happening in the world around us for the past seven days, then five questions for adults ... whoever answers the most correct questions can take the winner's podium.

Easy as.

Plus - of course - because it's a Friday - we've got all today's birthday shoutouts and all the shoutouts for the weekend coming ... including the birthday reggae tune – because it wouldn't be a Friday without it.

OK.... You ready, y'all? Let's do this ...

Alright kids - here are your five questions ...

1. Let's start with a sporting question ... and specifically cricket - because we heard in the podcast yesterday that a 15-year-old Indian batsman broke new records by hitting 204 runs off 53 balls .. what is it called in cricket when you hit 200 runs?
2. We also heard in the podcast yesterday how pop music fans in Melbourne have been beside themselves with excitement as which pop star - a former member of the boy band One Direction - prepares for the Australian leg of his world tour?

3. Let's look skyward for a moment - which many of us did this week - after Christie told us about a supermoon that his lit up the night sky around the world .. this particular moon is named after a critter that is known for building dams from mud and sticks and wood in lakes in North America ... what sort of supermoon is it?

4. The AFLW Grand Final takes place tomorrow in Melbourne. The Melbourne Demons are hoping to foil which team's attempt for an historic championship three-peat?

5. We heard in the podcast how yesterday Americans celebrated a holiday that is the second biggest holiday in the United States, after Christmas. It usually involves turkey, and pumpkin pie and families getting together to give thanks ... what is the holiday called?

ANSWERS

1. A double century
2. Harry Styles
3. Beaver supermoon
4. North Melbourne Kangaroos
5. Thanksgiving

"Alrighty... how'd you go, kids? Be honest — did you just blitz the adults?

Good for you! Kid power!."

Just before we dive into the adult questions, here's what's coming up in this week's Squiz Kids Science Short.

When you have a growth spurt, you might need new jeans or new shoes. But imagine having to take out your old skeleton and grow a whole new one. Ewww. Messy! Well, insects kinda do...

This week, Airav from Adelaide wants to know ... do insects have bones? Christie explores what an insect's skeleton has in common with your fingernails, how a grasshopper can jump without a single bone in its legs, and why a cicada might leave its old skeleton halfway up a tree.

Tune in to Squiz Kids in your favourite podcasting app first thing on Saturday morning to find out!

And if you've got a science question you'd like Christie to investigate, send it in to squizkids@thesquiz.com.au

Alright adults — you ready to wipe the floor with these uppity kids? ... you've got this!

1. Workplaces across the country ground to a halt at the end of last week and into this week after the release of what ludicrously popular online video game?

2. Miss Universe crowned yesterday in Puerto Rico. True or false: it's the first time Miss Universe has been married and a mother.

3. Jensen Huang was in the headlines this week after having been reinstated as the CEO of which AI chip making firm?

4. Which Pacific island nation signed a security agreement with Australia this week, turning its back on China?

5. Let's wrap it up with a sporting question: and which country is Australia playing this week in T20 cricket?

— STING —

Answers:

1. Grand Theft Auto
2. True
3. Nvida
4. Solomon Islands
5. England

Alright adults — how'd you go?

Who's the winner this week?

Lastly a belated shoutout goes to Chris listening over in Dubai.

And don't forget to tune in this Sunday, when a new From The Vault episode arrives in your podcast feed.

There are just 26 sleeps till Christmas [excitement], and families around the world are getting ready. There are decorations to untangle, presents to hide and one very important question to settle … what's for Christmas dinner?

This week, we're dusting off our Shortcut to The World's Christmas Menu. Find out why some families in Poland set a place for someone who hasn't been invited, what's on the table when dinner has TWELVE courses, and why a spoonful of pudding might end up on the ceiling.

Intrigued? Or just hungry…

Find it in your favourite podcasting app this Sunday.

For now though - this is Bryce Corbett signing off - and reminding you to get out there and have a most excellent day … over and out.
