

Often when we listen to a news story, we make a connection to our own lives, or find that it makes us feel a certain way. Jot down three important details from today's Lowdown, how they made you think or feel, and why they made you think or feel that way.

What Happened	How it made me think and feel, and why

Choose one of the details from above. Do you think other people would feel differently? Why?

---

---