

Learning Disabilities

1. Write down everything that's on your classroom timetable for today on the left of the page. Then, explain what each part of the day might be like for a kid with a learning disability. Use as much detail as you can remember from the podcast.

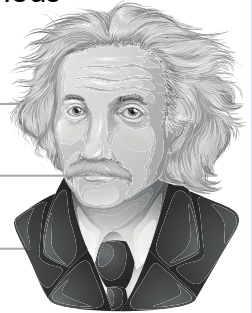

Light blue rectangular boxes for writing, arranged vertically on the left side of the page.

2. Are people with learning disabilities less intelligent? Explain your answer with evidence from the podcast.

Three horizontal lines for writing the answer to question 2.

3. Websites (and podcasts!) about learning difficulties almost always mention the famous people who have, or have had them. Why do you think that is?

4. Explain what you know about these learning disabilities, with as much detail as you remember:

dyscalculia:

dysgraphia:

dyslexia:

5. Listen to Thank You, Mr Falker using the link in the podcast episode notes. Then draw or write how the book made you feel, and what it made you think.