

Bound for Birmingham

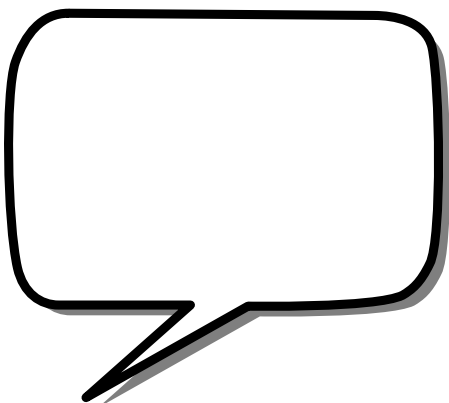

1. How are the Commonwealth Games different from the Olympics? Tick all that apply.

- The Olympic Games includes more sports.
- The Commonwealth Games are every five years.
- There are no Opening Ceremonies at the Commonwealth Games.
- Netball is included at the Commonwealth Games.
- The Olympics is the only one to have a winter version.
- Swimming events are only at the Olympics.

2. Para- and able-bodied athletes compete together at the Commonwealth Games, and separately at the Olympics. Why do you think the para-athletes might prefer the Commonwealth Games?

3. Charli Petrov is 14, and competing in diving at the Commonwealth Games. What are the two questions you'd ask her, if you could?

Australian Institute of Sport

4. Charli's motto is:

“ The trophies are won at training, you just collect them at competitions. ”

What do you think she means by that?

5. Use the numbers in the box to write a maths problem for a friend. Swap and solve!

AUSTRALIAN TEAM BY THE NUMBERS

- 435 team members
- 351 able-bodied athletes
- 76 Para-sport athletes
- 8 Para-sport support members
- 321 team officials
- 284 athletes making their debut
- 99 heading to their second Games
- 38 heading to their third
- 9 heading to their fourth
- 3 heading to their fifth
- 2 heading to their sixth
- 123 NSW born team members
- 84 VIC born team members
- 81 QLD born team members
- 36 WA born team Members
- 31 SA born team members
- 13 TAS born team members
- 6 ACT born team members
- 2 NT born team members