Ned Kelly

1. More than 140 years after he died, Ned Kelly—who was convicted of murder and armed robbery—is still a household name in Australia. Why do you think that is?

2. This picture was taken of Ned Kelly the day before he was hanged for his crimes. Pretend that you are Ned, and write a diary entry reflecting on your life. Do you have regrets? Things of which you are proud?

3. Police officer Alexander Fitzpatrick was called "generally bad and a discredit to the force"—by his boss. But when Fitzpatrick and the Kellys had different versions of what happened when the officer came to arrest Dan Kelly, Fitzpatrick was believed. Why do you think that was?

4. Would the outcome be different if something similar happened between a police officer and a family today? Explain.

5. "Ned Kelly had a good heart. If he'd had one decent adult as a role model, his life would have turned out very differently." Do you agree? Explain your answer using facts you learned from the podcast.
