In a land far from here,

Where the sky was always clear,

Lived a little mouse named Tim,

Who dreamed of exploring on a whim.

He packed his bag and set off one day,

On a journey far, far away.

He climbed over rocks and swam through streams,

And sailed on a boat made of ice cream.

He met new friends and saw new sights,

And basked in the sun's warm, golden light.

He learned so much on his big adventure,

And came back feeling quite the inventor.

From that day on, little Tim,

Told everyone to go explore,

For the world is vast and full of delights,

Just waiting for you to explore more.

There once was a girl-bird named Gertrude Mc Fuzz,

And she had the smallest plain-tail ever was

One droppy-droop feather, that's all that she had

And oh! That one feather made Gertrude so sad.

For there was another young bird that she knew,

A fancy young birdie named Lolla-Lee-Lou.

And instead of one feather behind, she had two!

Poor Gertrude, whenever she happened to spy

Miss Lolla-Lee-Lou flying by in the sky

She got very jealous. She frowned. And she pouted.

Then one day she got awfully mad and she shouted:

This just isn't fair! I have one! She has two! I MUST have a tail like Lolla-Lee-Lou!
