

All About Acronyms

Cop this! The United Nations' climate change conference is called COP28. The 28 is because it is in its 28th year. The "COP" is an acronym. It uses the first initials of what it stands for, Conference of the Parties. Acronyms are extremely common, especially in governments! Let's see how many you know...

Your Turn!

You're going to design an acronym for your class. First, you need to brainstorm words that describe your class. We've included a few ideas to show how the process works.

Teacher's Name: Christie Kijurina

Grade Level: Grade 4

Things you love to do: Maths, running relays, games

Things you have a reputation for: Awesomeness, friendship, funny

School colours, mascots, location: Blue, squirrel, Willows

My ideas:

CAK! Christie's Awesome Kids

BURR Blue Undeclared Relay Runners
