

Kids vs Adults Weekly News S'Quiz

Hello fabulous Squiz Kids listeners -

And welcome to the Kids v Adults Weekly News S'Quiz ... your chance to see who's had their listening ears on and been paying the most attention during the week that just was.

I'm Bryce Corbett -

All week in the Squiz Kids Today podcast, we've been bringing you the big news stories of the day - run through our kid-friendly filter - to make sure you know all you need to know about the world around you.

Now it's time to test how much of the week's news you've retained. And in the process, see who's smarter: kids or adults ...

Plus - of course - because it's a Friday - we've got all today's birthday shoutouts and all the shoutouts for the weekend coming ... including the birthday reggae tune – because it wouldn't be a Friday without it.

Here's how the quiz works: five questions for kids about the week in news - then five questions for adults.

Whoever answers the most correct questions wins. Easy peasy.

You ready? Let's do this ...

Alright kids - here are your five questions ...

1. Let's start with a sporting question: and all the talk this week in rugby league circles was about the NSW and Queensland team selections for what upcoming series?
2. In the daily news podcast on Monday, we heard about a vaccine that had been showing promising early signs helping to eradicate a disease in which native Aussie animal .. and I'll give you a hint .. they're fond of gum leaves.

3. In the pod this week we also heard about how Tasmania's new AFL team had begun the search for a new team song .. what's the name of Tassie's new team?

4. In the podcast yesterday, we heard how the house from a famous film is up for sale. If I told you the film is about a kid who gets left behind when his family goes to Paris on Christmas vacation - which movie would I be talking about?

5. The Matildas play a friendly match tonight against China in the capital city of South Australia. What city is that?

Answers:

1. State of Origin
2. Koalas
3. Tassie Devils
4. Home Alone
5. Adelaide

How did you go kids? How many did you get right out of five? Reckon you're going to beat the adults? Yeah - I reckon so too..

Alright adults - now it's your turn ...fire up the grey matter - here we go ...

1. On the subject of the Matildas, when she's know slotting soccer balls into the back of the net for Australia, which English team does star striker Sam Kerr play for?

2. To politics: and the Federal Immigration Minister was under pressure this week - facing Opposition calls for him to resign. What's the name of Australia's immigration minister?

3. To sport: and the French Open got under way this week. What is the name of the sports stadium in Paris where the famous clay courts can be found?

4. The United Kingdom learned last week that they were going to the polls after their Prime Minister called a snap election. What's the name of the British PM?

5. Another country went to the polls this week: it's current President Cyril Ramaphosa is facing electoral defeat. Which country am I talking about?

Answers:

1. Chelsea FC
2. Andrew Giles
3. Roland Garros
4. Rishi Sunak
5. South Africa

How did you go adults? How many did you get right?

Did you beat the kids? Who won bragging rights this week?

If you've missed any of those cool news stories throughout the week and you want to refresh your memory - all of this week's Squiz Kids episodes are available for a re-listen wherever you get your podcasts ...

That's the end of the quiz - which means now it's time for ...

SHOUTOUTS!

It's Friday, May 31 — the mighty Matildas are back in action taking on China tonight in Adelaide in a soccer friendly ... can't wait for that.

It's also a special day for these Squiz Kids celebrating a birthday today, and over the coming weekend... and because it's Reconciliation Week - we're noting the First Nations place names for our Shout-Outees ... AND because it's a Friday, we're going to do it all against the backdrop of the 'ol birthday reggae tune... hit it!
