

Kids vs Adults Weekly News S'Quiz

Hello fabulous Squiz Kids listeners -

And welcome to the Kids v Adults Weekly News S'Quiz ... your chance to see who's had their listening ears on and been paying the most attention to the week that just was.

I'm Christie Kijurina -

All week in the Squiz Kids Today podcast, we've been bringing you the big news stories of the day - run through our kid-friendly filter - to make sure you know all you need to know about the world around you.

Now it's time to test how much of the week's news you've retained. And in the process, see who's smarter: kids or adults ...

Plus - of course - because it's a Friday - we've got all today's birthday shoutouts and all the shoutouts for the weekend coming ... including the birthday reggae tune – because it wouldn't be a Friday without it.

Here's how the quiz works: five questions for kids about the week in news - then five questions for adults.

Whoever answers the most correct questions wins. Easy peasy.

You ready? Let's do this ...

Alright kids - here are your five questions ...

1. Twice in the podcast this week, we talked about a young boy who accidentally broke a very valuable object while visiting a museum. What did the little boy break? Was it:
  - a) a Bronze Age jar,
  - b) an ancient Roman statue,
  - or c) an ancient Egyptian hair brush?

2. Speaking of museums, we also heard that a museum in Shanghai is inviting animals to visit their ancient Egyptian exhibit. These animals were believed to be magical creatures in ancient Egypt. Am I talking about:
  - a) birds,
  - b) horses,
  - or c) cats?

3. In Wednesday's podcast, we learned that high school students across Australia have been raising merino sheep at school. In which popular nursery rhyme does a little lamb follow a girl to school?

4. On Thursday's podcast, we discovered that the leader of the Catholic Church is on a 33,000km tour of the Asia-Pacific region. What is the title given to the leader of the Catholic Church? Here's a hint: it rhymes with "The Soap."

5. This week, a second single was released from the Bluey album called Rug Island. Named after some super cute and comfy clothes you might wear to bed, what is the name of this single?

Answers:

Alright adults - now it's your turn ...fire up the grey matter - here we go ...
