Your Shorto	ut to SK*
*
	I
AUSTRA	LIA
AT WA	1 R

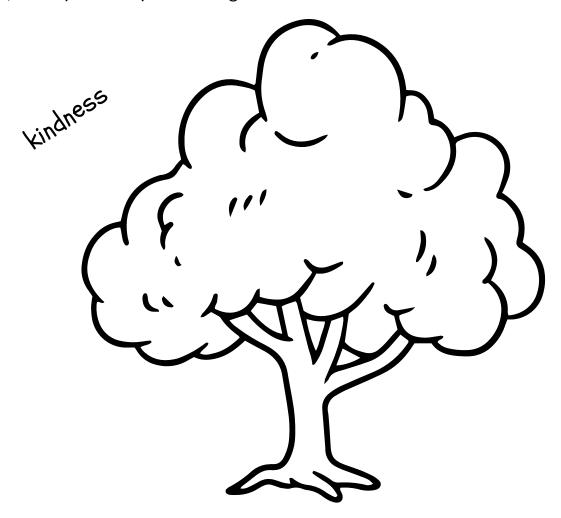

Name:	Date:	/	/
		,	,

£ . __ _

<ul> <li>□ 11th November</li> <li>□ 25th April</li> <li>□ 26th January</li> <li>2. The sound of the bugle playing the Last Post symbolises:</li> <li>□ Celebration of a battle won</li> <li>□ Honouring those who didn't return home</li> <li>□ Announcing a new military leader</li> <li>3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day?</li> <li>□ Because it's a colourful flower</li> <li>□ It grew on World War I battlefields</li> <li>□ To match army uniforms</li> <li>4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars wa</li> <li>□ Captain Cook</li> <li>□ Pemulwuy</li> <li>□ Edmund Barton</li> <li>5. Why do Australians remember soldiers who served a long time ago?</li> </ul>	1. What date is Remembrance Day?
26th January  2. The sound of the bugle playing the Last Post symbolises:  Celebration of a battle won Honouring those who didn't return home Announcing a new military leader  3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day?  Because it's a colourful flower It grew on World War I battlefields To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	11th November
2. The sound of the bugle playing the Last Post symbolises:  Celebration of a battle won Honouring those who didn't return home Announcing a new military leader  3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day? Because it's a colourful flower It grew on World War I battlefields To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars wa Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	25th April
Celebration of a battle won Honouring those who didn't return home Announcing a new military leader  3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day? Because it's a colourful flower It grew on World War I battlefields To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	26th January
Honouring those who didn't return home Announcing a new military leader  3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day? Because it's a colourful flower It grew on World War I battlefields To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	2. The sound of the bugle playing the Last	Post symbolises:
Announcing a new military leader  3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day?  Because it's a colourful flower  It grew on World War I battlefields  To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook  Pemulwuy  Edmund Barton	Celebration of a battle won
3. Why is the red poppy worn on Remembrance Day?  Because it's a colourful flower  It grew on World War I battlefields  To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars wa  Captain Cook  Pemulwuy  Edmund Barton	Honouring those who didn't return hom	e
Because it's a colourful flower  It grew on World War I battlefields  To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars wa  Captain Cook  Pemulwuy  Edmund Barton	Announcing a new military leader
It grew on World War I battlefields To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	3. Why is the red poppy worn on Rememb	rance Day?
To match army uniforms  4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars wa  Captain Cook  Pemulwuy  Edmund Barton	Because it's a colourful flower
4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Australians during the Frontier Wars was Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	It grew on World War I battlefields
Captain Cook Pemulwuy Edmund Barton	To match army uniforms
Pemulwuy  Edmund Barton	4. One of the leaders of Indigenous Austra	lians during the Frontier Wars was:
☐ Edmund Barton	Captain Cook
	Pemulwuy
5. Why do Australians remember soldiers who served a long time ago?	Edmund Barton
	5. Why do Australians remember soldiers	who served a long time ago?

6.	Mateship is a type of friendship where people come together to support anc	help each other. Why do you think this is important to soldiers during wai	rtime?

7. Colour this tree and fill it with words (you can also use the space around it) that symbolise peace and goodwill.

8. Look at the words you chose for your tree. How could you show these values of peace and goodwill at school or home?