

Who, what, where, when, why and how?

A Whale Of A Time!

In the podcast today, Bryce told you about an incredible real-life adventure—when a humpback whale accidentally scooped up a kayaker off the coast of Chile!

1. Tick the box to answer these multiple-choice questions and tell us the who, what, where, when, why, and how of Adrián's lucky escape.

a) Who was kayaking when he was scooped up?

- A fisherman in Australia
- A deep-sea diver
- A man with his dad

b) What kind of animal scooped Adrián up?

- A great white shark
- A humpback whale
- A giant squid

c) Where was Adrián kayaking?

- Off the coast of Chile
- In Antarctica
- In a swimming pool

d) When did Adrián go kayaking?

- Last year
- Last week
- Last night

d) Why didn't the whale swallow Adrián?

- It doesn't eat during the day
- It is scared of kayakers
- Its throat is too small

e) How do humpback whales eat?

- They open their mouths wide and lunge through fish and krill
- They use their sharp teeth to bite prey
- They munch on seaweed

2. Draw a picture of the moment and add a speech bubble—what do you think Adrián or the whale would have said?
