Who, what, where, when, why and how?

A Whale Of A Time!

When writing a summary, it's important to make sure you cover the who, what, where, when, why, and how of the story. In the podcast today, Bryce told you about an incredible real-life adventure—when a humpback whale accidentally scooped up a kayaker off the coast of Chile! Let's make sure you picked out all the important points.

Who were the main people or characters involved in the story?

Where did it happen?

When did it happen?

What happened?

How did the whale come to have the kayaker in its mouth?

Why was the kayaker able to escape?
