Design your own pet!

Create a brand-new creature by mixing features from different animals. Think about its looks, sounds, or abilities to create the perfect name. Then, design a poster advertising your creature as a new Designer Pet for sale. Make sure to label which animal each part came from.

For Sale!

Now, try writing a paragraph about why your animal would make a great designer pet. If you want to be tricky, you can use sarcasm—maybe those venomous fangs are just a tiny concern, or its deafening roar would be great for quiet nights at home!
