

Kids vs Adults Weekly News S'Quiz

Hello fabulous Squiz Kids Quizzers -

And welcome to the Kids v Adults Weekly News S'Quiz ... this is your chance to prove who's been paying the most attention to the week that just was.

I'm Bryce Corbett-

So, how does it work? First, we'll have five questions for kids about what's been happening in the world for the past seven days, then five questions for adults ... whoever answers the most correct questions can take the winner's podium.

Easy as.

Plus - of course - because it's a Friday - we've got all today's birthday shoutouts and all the shoutouts for the weekend coming ... including the birthday reggae tune – because it wouldn't be a Friday without it.

OK.... You ready, y'all? Let's do this ...

Alright kids - here are your five questions ...

1. There was an election in South Australia over the weekend — and voters decided to stick with the same leader for another four years. Which political party won the South Australian election? Was it:

- A. Liberal Party
- B. Labor Party
- C. The Birthday Party

2. Remember Punch — the baby monkey who was feeling a bit left out and had to play with a toy? Well, good news this week — he’s found a real best friend. What’s the name of Punch’s new monkey mate? And I’ll give you a hint... it’s a short name that rhymes with “go” and sounds like something you might do to the lawn...

3. We learned this week that kids in Queensland might soon need to hit the brakes on their e-bike and e-scooter rides — with new laws bringing in fines and even police patrols to enforce them. What’s the minimum age you’ll need to be before you can legally ride one?

- A. 12
- B. 14
- C. 16

4. This week, one McDonald’s took “fast food” to a whole new level — with robots greeting customers, delivering meals and even entertaining kids. In which Chinese city did this happen?

- A. Shanghai
- B. Seoul
- C. Tokyo

5. We heard in the podcast this week how there was a US college basketball game this week where one player made his opponent look like they’d accidentally wandered in from primary school. What was so incredible about Olivier Rioux’s appearance?

ANSWERS

- 1. Labor Party
- 2. Moe
- 3. C 16
- 4. A Shanghai

5. He is extremely tall — around 2 metres 36 centimetres/ 7-foot-9-inches tall

“Alrighty... how’d you go, kids? Be honest — did you just cook the adults?”

Yeah... thought so.”

Just before we get into the adult questions... this weekend’s Squiz Kids Science Short asks a question that’s been right under your nose this whole time: why are humans the only animals with chins?

It explores what a chin even is (turns out... that’s a bit of a head-scratcher), why no other animal has one, and what chins might have in common with birthday cake crumbs... yes, really.

You’ll find it waiting for you in your podcast feed first thing Saturday morning.

Alright adults — stretch, hydrate, and get ready to rumble ... you’ve got this!

— STING —

1. The kids told us that the Labor Party was returned to power in SA last weekend. Which politician has secured another stint as Premier of South Australia?
2. Who did the Matildas lose 1-0 to in last weekend’s Women’s Asian Cup final in Perth?
3. Name the pesky tropical cyclone that just wouldn’t leave Australia alone this week - smashing into Queensland, the NT AND WA.
4. If you’re any sort of a hip adult, you’ll get this one .. which mega famous boy band almost broke Netflix this week with the streaming of their comeback concert?

5. Staying with pop culture: Which Aussie songstress - who will be representing Australia this year at the Eurovision Song Contest - kicked off her Eurovision campaign this week with a gig in Norway?

1. Peter Malinauskas

Don't forget to tune in this Sunday — when a new From The Vault episode arrives in your podcast feed.

This weekend, we're heading deep... really deep... with the Squiz Kids Shortcut to the Deep Sea.

It's a journey into a world without sunlight, where creatures glow, jaws stretch wide enough to swallow prey whole, and survival means adapting to some of the toughest conditions on Earth.

It's a chance to explore a part of our planet that's less understood than the surface of the Moon... and packed with some of the strangest life forms you'll ever hear about.

Find it in your podcast feed this Sunday.

For now though - this is Bryce Corbett signing off - and reminding you to get out there and have a most excellent day ... over and out.
