

Kids vs Adults Road Trip Quiz

Hello, fabulous Squiz Kids listeners -

And welcome to the Kids v Adults ROAD TRIP QUIZ ... WHERE IN THE WORLD?

I'm Bryce Corbett...

All through term one in the Squiz Kids daily podcast, we've been bringing you the big news stories of the day - run through our kid-friendly filter - to make sure you know all you need to know about the world around you. And at the end of every week - we've tested how much you retained in the Kids v Adults Weekly News S'Quiz ...

But now, because it's the school holidays and many of you are off on family vacation, we're presenting a couple of Road Trip Quizzes .. to help you pass the time on those big holiday road trips, or while away the long hours at home during the school hols ...

The object of these kids vs adults quizzes – it's simple to see who's smarter: kids or adults ...

Here's how this works – ten questions for kids testing how well you know the world around you – then ten questions for adults. Whoever answers the most correct questions wins ...

Too easy.

And of course – because it's a Friday – we've got all of the birthday shout outs for the week that just was. For which we'll of course be breaking out the Birthday Reggae Tune – because – say it with me – it wouldn't be a Friday without it ...

So – think of this as an audio version of the blue piece of pie in the Trivial Pursuit board game ... we're talking geography people ..

You read to leap on in? Let's do this ...

BREAK

Alright kids - here are your ten questions ...

1. Let's start local to kick off proceedings ... and by that, I mean for our Australian listeners, the general neighbourhood down here in the Pacific .. and what is the other name of the country which is known by its Maori name Aotearoa – which translates to mean 'land of the long white cloud' ...
2. Let's spin the globe now and head to the continent of North America .. and which country would I be in if this country had more large lakes than any other country in the world, the people there loved a sport called ice hockey and the maple leaf was on their flag ...
3. Ok – shall we make this one a little harder? Go on then ... which continent do the countries of Eritrea, Egypt and Tanzania all share?
4. Speaking of continents: true or false ... Antarctica at the bottom of the Earth is a continent, but the Arctic, at the top of our planet, is not.
5. Ok – here's a question where geography meets pop culture .. and it's another true or false ... KPop Demon Hunters, the girl band BlackPink and the boy band BTS are all products of the country of North Korea ...
6. Here's an easy one for you: where in the world – as in what COUNTRY would you be in – if you were standing under the Eiffel Tower, eating a croissant and looking out across a river called the Seine?

7. Another one straight out of the easy peasy files – because we’ve got to give you a bit of a leg up before the adults get their questions – where in the world would you be – as in which CITY - if you were standing in front of Buckingham Palace, looking across Green Park towards a river called the Thames?

8. Washington DC – where the White House is located – is the capital city of which country?

9. Who am I? I’m a country that is very close to Australia. I have a population of 287 million people. The main religion here is Islam. I’m a nation of some 17,000 islands. My capital city is Jakarta. And you can be sure when you sit down to eat, one thing on the menu everywhere will be a dish called ‘nasi goreng’. I am ...

10. Last question .. and while we’re on the food theme ... where in the world would I be – as in which country, starting with ‘M’ - if I was eating tacos and burritos on a national holiday called the Day of The Dead – and my main tourist attractions included Aztec and Mayan temples?

Answers:

1. New Zealand
2. Canada
3. Africa
4. True
5. False ... South Korea
6. France
7. London
8. United States of America
9. Indonesia

10. Mexico

How did you go, kids? How many did you get right out of ten? Reckon you're going to beat the adults? Yeah - I reckon so too..

Alright adults - now it's your turn ...So – the unofficial rule here at Squiz Kids is that your questions are a little harder than the kids – because, well, you've been on the planet longer and should hopefully have picked up a few more facts along the way ..

You ready? LET's go ..

1. Let's ease you in gently ... and which country would you be in if the flag flying above all the government buildings was a white background with red dot in the middle?
2. Ok – let test how well you know your capitals ... and which city in Brazil serves as its capital? Is it a) Rio de Janeiro b) Sao Paulo or c) Brasilia?
3. Speaking of purpose built capitals – if I was standing on Capital Hill in this country and looking out across Lake Burley Griffin – which country would I be in?
4. Name the country whose famous landmarks include the Basilica of Sagrada Familia, the Cathedral Mosque of Cordoba and the Alhambra of Granada?
5. In which country is the Muslim holy city of Mecca?
6. If I was standing in the city of Helsinki, having just had a sauna and whacked myself with birch branches before hopping into frozen waters – what country would I be in?

7. Alrighty – while we’re in the Euro neighbourhood – let’s do another capital .. and which city is the capital of Germany? Is it a) Bonn b) Berlin or c) Munich?
8. How you feeling adults? Reckon you’re on track to flame those kids? Okey doke – try this one on for size .. it’s a bit historical, a little bit pop culture, a little bit geography ... one of the most famous and critically acclaimed films in the world stars Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman and features the famous line: “Play it again, Sam”. The movie, released in 1942, is of course Casablanca in which country is the city of Casablanca?
9. Which is the largest country in the world, by total area? Is it a) Russia b) Canada or c) China
10. Which is the smallest country in the world by population? Is it a) Tuvalu b) Vatican City or c) Monaco

Answers:

1. Japan
2. c) Brasilia
3. Australia
4. Spain
5. Saudi Arabia
6. Finland
7. B) Berlin – Reichstag
8. Morocco
9. a) Russia - 17.1 million square kilometres
10. Vatican City – population about 500 people ... also the smallest country by land area - measuring a meagre half a kilometre squared.

How did you go adults? How many did you get right?

Did you beat the kids? Who has turned out to be smartest?

OK, we've given your brain cells a work out ... let's give a hoiy to all the Squiz Kids who've celebrated a birthday throughout the week that just was ...

>> SHOUTOUTS

And it's a very happy birthday to these Squiz Kids celebrating a birthday today and over the past week And because it's a Friday- and there are sooo many of you - let's crack out that ol' birthday reggae tune... Hit it!

Amelia from Forest Lake, Jett from Paraburdoo, Benji from Bald Blair, Aryana from Glenfield, Luca from Attadale, Zach from South Oakleigh, Marloe from Dundas Valley, Dhani and Isabelle from Forest Lake, Cecelia from Yass, Grace from Yarrawonga, Zephyr from Strathalbyn, Leo from Malvern East, Tim from Vermont South, Ethan G from Oran Park, Lanni from Gladstone, Toby, Jovi and Hazel from Tanilba Bay, Julius from Maidstone, Alexander from Petrie, Luna from Eden Hill, Emily from Albany Creek, Louis from Greenway, Olivia from Lindfield, Oscar from Bridport, Olivia from Shoalhaven Heads, Cody from Turramurra, Mellieha from Campbelltown and Dahlia from Highfields.

Belated shoutouts go to... Lydia from Cook and Flynn from South Sydney

Well - that's all we have time for.

I hope you're enjoying these quizzes.

If you're hanging out for something to do over the holidays, we have a whole back catalogue for you to listen to. And the best bit, they're all free!

Check it all out at squizkids.com.au ... or find it all in the Squiz Kids feed of your favourite podcasting app – and remember if you subscribe all this excellent audio content will magically appear. Have fun listening, and we'll be back again tomorrow with an excellent Science Short where we'll answer a question from Bella, who is 8 years old and lives in Brisbane. Bella asks, 'How do Rainbows form?'

For now, though - this is Bryce signing off - and reminding you to get out there and have a most excellent day ... over and out.